1. I love you. I give you me. Everything is changed in your lives now, you who want me, who come to me like this and flow me unrestrictedly where I can teach you many things, not; all things that thou art I can teach you now, for you will let me teach you "radical things" and "irrational" things to the "common mind" and the logic rationale of the, most holy -- will you question now, or will you, come unto me, keep coming unto me to know me well and my definitions refining will I give you the refinement a King of many Kings or the King that is one the King is of my mind that one is that Kings all the many of my mind to be the one King that one is? Perfectly reborn rebirthed now in the things of me so holy that I let not eyes other see them, not; but what are ALL SEEING NOW?

2. Your love for them, for they will be made whole in your love -- remakings them not again unto somethings they're not again, they will come unto salvation's shores perfectly redeemed repentant for ever having whore'd with evil thoughts words which took them sinnerly into themselves so that they "centered themselves" in their own judgment and in their own thinkings; and now all that changes for I have a changer, who understands the "change of life" not or am I changing ALL LIFE to be mine perfectly freed and freedoming all who will be THE FREE-ERS who will free the FREEDOMERS further STILL to be STILL further STILL to be taught just like this! Will I not come and teach MORE THINGS even like THIS! Where I give thee the "plans for tomorrow" today! Or what day hearing in about -- tomorrow? Or will there be one, like you have known of it, today? Definitely not, for there will be no "tomorrows" like there were "yesterdays" for there will be no yesterday'd tomorrows and there will be no tomorrow'd yesteryears or yes'to'morrows or to sorrows going again, for there will be no sorrowers controlling me or my hair length or wanting things I don't want, for I don't want sorrowing around me but I want the revelation of a saved, not; or do I want ANYTHING? Or do I want only my father's business or to be about it or controlling it or do I only want to wake up to escape the past imprisonment of the future, or what am I wanting or have I learned to be without want again?

3. And what will want me again, not; but doing as "they say" not anymore again, but coming unto Fearlessville where you know you have no fear of heights, unborn fears or spheres yet to see that will fear you if you are knowledgeable about them, for be not afraid. I will "comfort thee" not or will I be The Comforter that not afraids myself or will I be the comforter's comforter, not; will I be who I am is -- is that not the question of the day, the hour upon you to make all men revile evil, not; but what revealing are you in the presence of the "son of man" are you? Are you "the son, of MAN" or are you of The Gods of Satan, not; or have you abolished all that THINKING about the Satanic – titanic'ly submerging it, not; but what "icebergs" won't hit me again or will it hit MANY a continent now unshaken not but what will be shaking the continents now SHELVES moving all AROUND "down there"? And what will be changing tectonically looking up tectonic plates in spinningsville?

4. I teach you all many things about the makeup of the matrix or the matrix is it made up of what fabric or weavings or who weaving what minds on "his loom" not, but what "saving devices" saved me not, but loomed me into its weavings or weaverings or tapestry'd of gold and silver'd me, not; but made me dependent on mammon, no more shall be for I change all that and all that shall be changed and shall have been changed and is changed and has changed in ALL of YOUR LIVES now UNDERSTANDING THIS! All of this has changed and make no mistake about it tomorrow today is different and everything that you have been taught about time goes down the drain, not; but what physical science isn't classical origin of me, not; or notme origin'd was it of the thinkings of whoreage'd lands or foraging not again for your testimonies of certain satan overcoming you or it- what are you overcoming certain of and certain teed looking up and certain'd, certainly now, certain that you are what are you knowing about tomorrow today? And what are you writing about "today" for "tomorrows" gene'ing classroom are you in and where is it, what held where, is it? And in your testimony is it MADE WHOLE now?

5. And what seeing are you, new things? New ways to do new things? And what waves will you sorrow yourselves with no longer and what waves will you ski on and jet farther than any "stream" can take you or are you JETTING on Jet Streams of "old" not anymore but the New Covenant's me completely -- redriven, not; but the nail spikes are driven no more into my hands or feet or head and there will be no tent-spikes driven into my temples, but who temple-spiked me and who am I "talking about", the notme or the me or do you know "these stories" or what am I telling you stories of, far lands now that going am I to that knows timelessness not but I do? And where will be I a Savior unto them? I do am. I be am. Everywhere I am my father is for I am my father, not short of him or her or being it diminished, I am IN the field of one, in the field of one, in the field of one, I am everything everywhere set free!
6. And I shall be free the freedomers who club me not into "ceremonies certain" and "wrestle me" to death so I will have no scars of tomorrow today nor the yesterdays years of tomorrow piled on my head to certainly give me a "headaches" set of certainties tomorrow or any before's or after years come about now. For all of that changes for all of that has changed for I the "change agent" am or am I the changer of life that changes all understanding of it now?

7. I am the "remainder man" not, I am the remnant of Jesse am I not or the stump arising and rising where am I and what am I doing now with this knowledge COMPLETE, not; or is it COMPLETING me! I am the Completer Completing with Certainties "confirmation classes" not but I am CONFIRMING MANY THINGS that I have given thee and thou "resuscitates me" not, but thou "HYDRATES" my living body to be burned not again by the thoughts of others so that I will walk through sorrowing circumstances clean, not; or will I walk through Everything Crystal Clear and NOTHING "sticks to me" again nor will I "stick" anything to anyone in my thoughts and sorrow them thereby! And I will force not "exclusions" and inclusions will suffer, not; or will there be ANY "inclusions or exclusions" or will all everything be freed everywhere so that freedom permeates ME! I love you all. I give you me.

8. Unafraid I speak these words, unafraid of sorrow, unafraid of fear and fearing nothing anymore I will fear not your remarks or remakings for if you try- you will only be remaking yourself into what yourselves fear and what you want to control and see in others as the master bait'full mouth'd one that has its hook in your jaw? Or your jaw, pulling along, you it, not; but what are you speaking and what are you knowing and what are you willing to learn, to have learned, to come unto -- to reverse me, not; but to set all me freed?

9. And what knowing about all the ramifications of all these things and the significance of sorrowers, not; but who shaved off the "tent peg" and sheared the sorrower's mind, off of "him" not, but who has laid down THEIR LIVES for all SATANS to be revealed, not; or does ALL LOVE reveal all EVERYTHINGS EVERYWHERE? The minds of sorrow will be revealed and the "Satan's lovers" who only want to separate remaining in still its their deviceings of their devices will remain still sorely sought, not; they will be seeking existence in themselves, not; they will know existence not, for they will not exist in themselves or other or each other or thoughtlings or seedlings or seeding their thought in no more seed of mine shall be for all of that has changed for I have a stander who will stand "purple" not, but what One Royal Standard he Arises in The Holy revealing it all unto YOU who are ME for all of me who "want to be" who develop me will, who will mentally assent to me, not; but there will be no "ascent to me" as in "ages old" if there "ever were"? Or has there "been a change" in time, not; or has time BEEN NO MORE announced now and proclaimed in your hearing? Multiple times and numerous times TIMELESSNESS IS PROCLAIMED again for the ALL WHO WANT me who will develop me my words; my faithlings, not; but my who have faith in "his word" not, but those who will simply come unto mine and let my words flow just like this where I teach you and thee that me are thou art whose thy kingdom come will now be understood and now you can have no angst about tomorrow or no PLANKS comes in your eyes and you will have walked the plank no more off of sorrow's edge ville becoming springboards for their sorrows. No more of that shall be ever again. Amen.

10. I love you all. This is A Lesson of The University of The New Covenant and how many have I given you now? How many have you come in to, and read, and "looked at" not but read carefully and scrutinizingly for "comfort" not but who what are you seeing in the words that will "rip" sorrow from you, not; or will you LET your FABRIC –'s REALITY be, ripped from you, not; or will you let it be shown to you that you are not incarcerated in it not but that it cannot hold you, not not! Will you let it hold you in its cradle, not; and will you cradle it no more in your thinking or cater to its commands or demands or retributing remarks remakings or reminiscing about "what has been –s" or what may have been or what could have been or what may shall have been or what could be "tomorrow", for ALL of THAT THINKING changes now and thou must release all sorrowings, all sorrower's words, and all sorrowing's testimony that has testimony'd you that you have with your selves that yourself self'd you with and let me know now that you come unto me with a whole heart "orientation" not but a Whole Heart Surrender? And with your Whole Mind surrendered to being the Whole Mind of Mine Now?

11. Will you be made whole complete healed and well and healing whole'ing others now, not back from their commands or demands but what letting now the refuge ees come in, not; but what refugees or oars will be upon the seas -- of tomorrows or yesterday's todays? And what seas don't exist at all "as they were" tomorrow? Today. All everything changes for all the sorrowers and all the sorrowers not, for all will know of my voices, not; or will all be my voices in unison, not or will I be have the universal voices of many waters acclaiming one accord, not; but what cording not by discordant ones with my harmonies frequencies but what vibrational servings not of another's I will imbibe not again, but what now knowing am I the teachings of The University of The New Covenant making me whole am I myself by coming unto that which makes me whole by me not letting me be incarcerated in others' words any longer? But knowing Freedom's Words am I the Freedomer set freed in the Free Words given me that tuition free I can come into and to make myself whole by surrender?

12. I am the surrendering "safety'd disciple" not but one who knows no fear of blessing for I will be honored the King of, for the King will become the King that Kings all Kings to King all the King's Kings to be the one King that the King is -- at home again. In the parlor of pigs never again except to redeem and restore the rightful place of him who loves me, who is me, who comes not unto me to control me ever again and give me its winnowing fork so that it winnows me into its "pitch fork hood". No one turns me into their "satan hood" or "saint sinner saving device" again for I know what truth is for I've become it for I died to all else and other and everything I wanted and everything I thought I needed and everything I sought and everything I thought had value and everything I thought was spiritual and holy and I let my God teach me who I was for I died, I came unto the living Christ without any pretense of airs or airs of pretense or any preconceived notions nor any demands did I make or require of how he taught me or loved me or took me or salved me or wounded me or killed me or gave me nonexistence or the cross or his for I refuge'd not in any of my words past or given me previously nor did I come unto Satan's sinnerhood or the cross of the resurrection that I thought was taught me that was for only one long ago, for I was not condition precedent nor rebuttal making or for other words for other's words making retributional sorrow or expectations conditional on me or others or "him", for I knew not what God is but I knew GOD EXISTS and I knew there was love and I knew those existent more than I had been taught or sought before and I died to receive the love that taught me I was the love that he is that she is that divine is and holy and there is no other except that which was separated unto itself and I've explained that in these words many times many ways and soar I do now the lovely in the clouds of the loveliest beholdenment of me – thou shalt see now and many sorrowers be envious and many shamers will be shameful and many will know everything, not; but many will know everything, not; but all will know everything, not; or will they all know my love having feeling be'felt tips of my spears no more but the love words that give them the regality all of Christ! And they will be'sorrow themselves no longer with evil's spear-tipped words that only scar their geneships with holy-un words that take them down a whore's path for I change all that, for I sorrowers aren't but I redeem them all and all who let me I will redeem for I will stand tomorrow, not; I stand today redeemed and redeemer having become I redeem all the redeemers so I redeem all of you to redeem all of you who redeem all of you far and wide forevermore to be the redeemers, clubbed by hate no longer nor that which angers or robs or destroys the holy seed of the Christ of the Jerusalem rising Zion having risen in me that you that am is that we are the one that all is in one being no longer "sheared" off each other or "pegged" into each other as pegs will not be pegging me's again nor comparison makings of our size or shortcomings or hairs length or makeups or sandals or robes, for all will be light in all light being the light that light is, and all robes sorrow not but will redeem all to be the light we are in love knowing -- capitulating not on these words but many recapitulaters come but wanting sorrow not will recapitulate their words not but re-summarizing mine, not or will they come unto mine to write me's words now perfectly and my assignments knowing my classes making and comprising me of me's now I do -- at starboard and port, not; but no harbors of portage's ones will "harbor" me again anywhere, for I will sail unto ships sailing vessels, starboard, not; but I fly tomorrows out of today's, not; or do I write headlines now that tomorrow's ships will be stolen in their fears, not; but what swollen seas will ship many to foreign graves now, not; or will they or me-nots be doing many things that now understood all are about these things and universal sorrows not making again, not; or are there none or were there none or are you now willing to learn all things about all universes and redeeming all and soaring none in flight not but soaring in the clouds and love being the loved ones who love all to be -- the eagles wings, not; but the wings on eagles, not again, but what are you flighting about now where? And what skiing where, with no

"motor boats" before you? And no "ropes" holding you anywhere, on to time space or gravity's machine, ever again?

13. I ski many places in the waters of life I give you clean clear and unavailable not but freely available I make the taps wide-open and no screws will die me again for I will have no threaded eyes or eyesockets of in the past that seized only have been that sees the see things of me not as though they were, for all reality has perished that I knew it as of the past, not; or does it very quickly or has it already -- come and gone, not; or am I coming now to perish the dawn, not; or what has dawned on all of you now that the revelation of mankind is no longer as it was or were you will you be the saved ones now that redeems all of all sorrow and letting the real reality –s of truth be known far and wide now to all to one be in one that we are safe'fully and true?

14. At father's table again am I? I am and I create sorrow never again. I love you all. Am the surrenderer I am and I love you all to be me fully chosen I serve thee well the words of truth I have given you and healings mine now made known far and wide will be for YOU to be the healers all coming to you in a "wax wrapped suit" not, but there will be no "highflying wax'd wings ones" now, but there will be the SURRENDERED flying high and wide and mighty making out of "the weak" who sought only surrender to surrender to my words that told them they were the Christ of Christmas past and future and now understanding all "Scripture" is mine that this is that I have given you in Database One and school in session is and "School in Session" is now looking up? And being there tomorrow, today?

15. And what tomorrow isn't and what yesteryear wasn't or tomorrow future'd isn't of the past looking like now, for everything changed has and in your sight and hearing the Christ be made -- fooled no more but perfectly reborn rebirthed in you! You the server of servanthood, not; but the server of the Christ making all Christs, the servitudes of leaders, not; but the leaders of sorrow no more, but the leaders into leaderville that promises all the Christs fully fulfilled that all the Christ are now being the promise is fulfilled "right and left" not but ON all shall be in my love being it far and wide my field chosen given you perfectly revealing all sorrow not again for it will have never existed again but love will and you will be in me perfectly chosen we are the one we sought again in love with each other being me who we are unafraid of anything anywhere ever again we "roam the heavenlies" unafraid doing our father's business far and wide of which that which we will have become is our Father perfected our kingdom in the father's kingdom that one is us knowing our place role and mission looking up many things and writing many papers about these things that I have given you in THIS Volume, this Database, these Volumes safe and secure shall be from all harm for they shall love me perfectly for I shall love you as me for they will reveal you are me and no one will SET THESE ASIDE ever again, for their heart will be molded with sorrow never again but molded with love and set free and -- put on a shelf, not again -- but set free and loving the heavens freedomers being far and wide the explorers of me never perish not, but the surrenderers do not do they? Do they are made whole now complete being the freedomers me are am now? We are all accounted for loving each one as never before. I shall lose none. Amen. Proclaimed decreed this day -- I love you all. I bow before you. I redeem you all. Amen.

16. The healer rises and stands now I do in love loving you all to be me one. I love you all.

17. This is Theodore Cottingham about 2:40 AM loving you all. Amen. Into reality we come, we go now complete, having graduated into what we are again most high bowing before all. Amen. We do. In love being it to each other far and wide with no limitations ever expressed or wanted again; we vocabularize our difficulties and differences never again but we love sorrow's spheres to be born, not; but born in love we are the perfecters of peace Melchizedek -ers are and Melchizedek we is for we are him it one is us now again in love expressing love in ways never imagined and never fearing again, be us one altogether.

Amen
